SENATOR JANSSEN: Absolutely.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, the slogan of Rice Krispies and that of chiropractors are the...is exactly the same, Snap, Crackle, and Pop. You belong there.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Senator Janssen, you're recognized for discussion on the Beutler amendment.

SENATOR JANSSEN: Thank you, Mr. Lieutenant Governor, members of the Legislature. I don't...I don't believe that, if I made the statement or said anything about the amount of paperwork would be eliminated, actually it would not be eliminated. That, in this case anyway, you're still going to have to make the application for the appointment and so on and so forth. You have to go through all of the hoops you go through now. The only thing that would be eliminated would be that financial statement. And, after all, I mean if you want someone serving on these boards, you're going to...I think you're going to start running out of people who are willing to...are willing to take a look at these jobs. I don't believe that, you know, these are just some of the things...some of the departments that the Accountability and Disclosure Commission are looking at, that they get very few calls, very few people that want to come in and look at that. Still going to have to do the same amount of work, still going to have to store the same amount of material, still going to have to review all the processes. The only thing is they're leaving out the financial part of it, and I...it wouldn't make any difference to me, I don't have any money anyway, so they could look at all the financial reports they wanted with me, but I imagine it would bother some of the other people. So this is the only thing that I'm looking at, I mean, it's not...Senator Chambers, wouldn't mind coming back on Select File and looking at going through the list again, maybe eliminating some that you would have a problem with, you or Senator Beutler, but as Senator Schimek said, I think that would be the best way for us to go. And so, therefore, I'm asking you not to...not to support the Beutler, Senator Beutler's amendment, so we can come back, sit down with the Accountability and Disclosure and go through the list again, and maybe eliminate some that are on there. I would be willing to do
